

CITY BRIEFS

Fred Giere, 17, made two attempts to kill mother. Stole her money and clothes. Refused to work. Arrested.

Zion City objects to cement sidewalks. People say the Savior wouldn't like them.

Mrs. Marie DeLorenz, alleged bigamist, brought here from St. Louis. Said to have deserted Antonio Nicolette, 565 W. Harrison street, to return to first husband.

Philip Rand, 29, arrested, charged with being one of two men who swindled H. Finegold, 8376 S. Marshallfield ave., out of $400.

Walter Traeger, Kenosha, arrested, charged with attempting to kidnap two sons from divorced wife.

John Moreland, 10241 Avenue J, killed by falling kettle of molten metal in plant of Illinois Steel Co.

Charles Brower, 85, asphyxiated in home of son, 6830 Wayne ave.

Delos Lamb, 40 W. 70th place, crushed and fatally injured in elevator accident at 115 W. Monroe street.

Miss Anna Monch, employed in home of G. B. Dugdale, 5206 S. Western ave., accidentally shot in neck. Will recover.

Mrs. Mary A. Garvy, 809 Lytle street sued for $10,000 damages by William H. Ryan. Ryan alleges he fell through defective sidewalk in front on one of defendant's buildings.

Mable Keagle, 15; Viola Mc-

Donald, 18, both runaways from Peoria, and Darce Davis, 24, claiming to be engaged to one of the girls, arrested in a flat at 520 W. 79th street last night on complaint of McDonald girl's parents.

Emil Kircvh, Crystal Lake, Ill., filled up on Crystal Lake whisky and took train for Chicago. Got so warm he arrived here wearing nothing but a happy smile and a pair of cuffs. Sent home by police.

Horse driven by Joseph Kupper, 5029 Loomis street, ran away throwing Kupper from wagon. Fractured skull.

Roland Emmons, 3220 Haddon avenue, held up by three armed bandits early today. Watch, chain and $4.

John C. Hess, Hinsdale, struck by Burlington train there and seriously injured.

Two men held up Frank Adams, Wells-Fargo Express Co. driver last night. Broke open safe in wagon. Beat Adams severely when they found it empty. Robbers escaped with 15 cents.

Charles Dannloff and Finley Clark, 1508 S. Wabash, arrested after revolver battle. Charged with robbing cigar store at 66 E. 12th street.

Three waiters and owner of restaurant at 1031 S. State street arrested on complaint of William Norton that they robbed him of $80.

Unidentified man found in switch shanty of Rock Island railroad at E. 95th street early this morning. Bruise above right eye. Murder suspected by police.